Mass Meeting of Miners and Prominent Protest Against Sargent's New Mining Bill.

VIRGINIA, March 28.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the miners, business men and citizens generally of Virginia and Gold Hill was held at Piper's Opera House this evening. An immense crowd was present and forcible speeches made in which the Negley amendment to the mining law now before Congress was bitterly denounced. The people are greatly aroused at this last attempted encroachment of the Sutro Tunnel Company and are putting forth every effort to prevent being completely ruined by this great monopoly.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted with great enthusiasm:

WHEREAS, The amendment to the mining law now pending in Congress and which along with other things requires all mining companies on the Comstock lode to apply for patents to their claims within six months, involves matters of great moment and permanent interest to the miners, property owners and business men of Storey county; and

WHEREAS, It is the almost unanimous wish of all citizens of the county that the aforesaid amendment should be rejected: therefore be it

Resolved, By the miners of Storey county in mass meeting assembled—First. That the amendment above referred to is justly regarded as a vital stab at the material prosperity of Storey county and of all the residents thereof. Second. That the effect of the amendment can only be injurious and disastrous to every interest of this people. Third. That the passage of the amendment will destroy confidence in the mining interests of Storey county, will retard the work of development and prospecting on the Comstock lode, will discourage those by whose energies deep mining is being carried on, will drive away capital, will depress labor, will depreciate the value of real estate, will tend to annihilate business, and will in all things be to each of us a great and lasting calamity. Fourth. That for fourteen years the towns of Virginia and Gold Hill have poured an unceasing stream of wealth into the nation's treasury, and no good reason exists and none can be given why the great blight threatened by this amendment should be put upon them and their prosperity taken away and their very existence jeopardized. Fifth. That the people who have reared these towns are and have ever been loyal and true to the Government and the flag, and nothing done or omitted by them can warrant the ... which is punishment which this proposed action of Congress will certainly inflict. Sixth. That to the laboring classes of Storey county the passage of the amendment will bring us great and permanent injury and misfortune to any other, and it must result in a reduction of the number employed and in the wages of those retained ... the dangerous business of mining at deep levels where our lives are in constant jeopardy; we can but earnestly protest against any action of Congress which will tend to reduce our wages and take away from us the means of gaining a livelihood. Seventh. That the only benefit possible to come from the adoption of the amendment will redound to the advantage of a grasping monopoly whose success can only be built up on our ruin, and whose schemes involve the utter destruction of Virginia and Gold Hill, the destruction of the wages of labor, the abandonment of mining, except as contrasted by it, and finally ruin to the whole people of Storey county. Eighth. And finally that we earnestly remonstrate against the passage of the amendment hereinbefore mentioned, and we do appeal to the Congress of the United States and to the sense of justice and the convictions of right which must ever guide the judgments of our ... to protect us from this threatened and imminent danger and by the rejection of the amendment secure us from certain disaster. Ninth. That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forthwith forwarded to the Senators and Representatives in Congress of the State of Nevada.

1st. While we believe as strongly now in the progressive principles of the Republican party as we did when the nation's existence depended on the success of those principles, yet we utterly repudiate and will not attempt to palliate official delinquency and corruption wherever its exists, either in our own or any other political party.

3d. That we ask aid from Congress in the construction of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad as absolutely necessary to the development of the resources of our State.

4th. That we demand the immediate repeal of the Litigant Law, and that we deprecate and denounce the influences brought to bear upon our Governor to induce him to veto its repeal, thereby condemning and forgetting his bosom friend whom he loved and fought for for the last 23 years.

5th. That we condemn the action of the last Legislature in raising the fees of county officers, and we are in favor of an act of the next Legislature reducing in some manner the compensation of County Clerks and Sheriffs to an amount commensurate with the duties and burdens of their offices, and we deprecate ... can be greatly curtailed without injury to the interests of the county.

6th. We are opposed to the purchase or lease by the State on any terms of the Canal and Locks at Oregon City.

The following officers were nominated: For Senator, Peter Paquet; Representatives, ... Short, ... Tale, ... ; Sheriff, J. J. Apperson; Clerk, J. M. Frazer; County Judge, ... Kendall; County Commissioner, ... Fitzurelle and C. O. Howe; ... Burns; Assessor, H. ... ; Superintendent, S. D. Pope; Coroner, Dr. J. W. Norris; County Surveyor, S. ... ; County Committee, A. J. Apperson, ... J. H. Lambert.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Convention:

Resolved, That the Clackamas county delegates to the State Convention are hereby instructed to use their influence to secure the nomination of the Hon. W. Carey Johnson for District Judge.

Resolved, That the delegate attending said Convention be instructed to cast the vote of any who may be absent.

On motion adjourned.

The Convention was characterized by good order and harmony throughout, although a good deal of earnest work was done. The best of feeling seems to prevail, and we feel confident of being able to elect the ticket.

No cattle and horses have died yet and these seem to be in a fair way to weather it through. The letter states that many think the cause of so many sheep dying is that they are diseased, but the writer thinks it is occasioned by want of shelter more than any other cause. He says that stock owners there have been feeding continually since the first of December and all other feed having given out they have been obliged to commence on their seed grain and still have enough to feed three weeks before which time they earnestly hope for the opening of spring.

MONDAY MORNING MARCH 30 1874.

A HEALTHY CONVENTION.

Those who have watched the newspapers closely are aware that there was to be a Republican County Convention held in this city on last Saturday. In divers and sundry ways that fact had been announced and the sequel proved the announcement correct. There was a Convention. It was a very healthy Convention. Geographically Multnomah county is small but it is too large to expect delegates to come to a Convention. It is amazing that heretofore all the precincts have been represented and nearly all the delegates chosen have been in attendance. And therefore the fact that two precincts entirely failed to respond to the call for delegates to this Convention, and that of the delegates elected in other precincts nearly one fourth were absent and some of them not even represented by proxies—we say these facts, though a little unusual, are by no means remarkable. They are no evidence of the truth of our statement that that was a healthy Convention.

To the proper management of a party Convention a good reliable lobby is indispensible. Only let there be a first lobby of well trained logrollers, and there need be no difficulty in running the Convention. Nor is it essential that the lobby be very numerous. Indeed, the best lobbies are not very numerous. The lobby of this Multnomah County Convention was one of the best, and was not numerous. It consisted of H W Scott, Collector of Customs, John P Ward Deputy Collector of Customs, L H Briggs, Clerk of Customs, L F A Shaw, Clerk of Customs, W K Witherell Inspector of Customs, James Miles, Inspector of Customs, J L Ferguson, Inspector of Customs, James W Ryan, Inspector of Customs, B C Dunway, Opener and Sampler of Customs (and things), Geo P Riley, Porter and Messenger of Customs, Dennis Murphy, Marker of Customs, W B Daniels, late Inspector of Customs at Portland and present promisee of an Inspectorship of Customs at Astoria and David Powell. David does not belong to the Customs in the same sense that the other members of that excellent lobby do. But he runs another custom that is peculiarly his own and is of great use to the Custom House ring as an auxiliary institution. We allude to a custom he has of being on hand whenever there is a job to be put up or a lie to be told. His part in putting up the Hipple resolution at the Albany Convention, which cost the Republican party so dearly, is well remembered. That was according to his custom. Then the lie he told after we had gone East about a conversation with us, which we are able to prove was a malicious lie from beginning to end, and which, sneak and coward that he is, he dared not publish while we were here, was strictly in accordance with a custom he has. He is the most consummate liar in Multnomah, Scott always excepted.

But we digress. We were saying, if we [illegible] Mr Malarkey, Inspector of Customs and Chairman of the County Committee, said substantially, in his remarks when he called the meeting to order that it was healthy, and Mr Malarkey knows a healthy convention when he sees it as well as the next man. He is the most sagacious man in the Custom House ring and what he does not know about the sanitary condition of a County Convention or ward meeting, is not worth knowing. When he went to call the Convention to order, he cast his hazel eye over the lobby, and took in the whole situation at a glance. It was the customary lobby of Customs, and all looked happy. Daniel was happy too, and with a smile that was child-like and bland, but with a voice that was fine and distinct, he said, still looking straight at the lobby, "this is truly a Republican Convention, and here is abundant evidence that those who think the zeal of the glorious old party is waning, know not of what they speak. When I see almost the entire party assemble to witness the deliberations of its convention, I cannot but feel certain that on the first Monday in June, victory will perch upon our banners as of yore." This report of the speech may want some slight verbal corrections, but it is correct in the main. A cynical reporter says he thinks he had heard that idea about victory perching on the banners expressed before, but that makes no difference. It is just as good as new. Besides, Daniel learned oratory at the feet of our John Hiram, and must be allowed to bloom out a little on proper occasions. And if we can't quite rise to the height of his frou descent rhetoric, nor endorse his sanguine views of the prospects of his party we certainly agree with him that the Republican party of the county and of the State too was pretty much all present. That awful Portland Custom House ring and that peculiar custom of Powell's and the party in the State, as now run would be bankrupt.

ANOTHER FLOODGATE [illegible]

Politics sometimes leads to personalities in Oregon. This is believed to be equally true of other countries, but we know it is true of Oregon, and unless we greatly mistake there are several persons who are or have been, more or less prominent in the State by whom we could prove our assertion if it were disputed. The [illegible] of common sense appears to have decided so that when a man [illegible] himself is the fittest person to receive the suffrages of his countrymen, and to give them [illegible] and honorable position they [illegible] quire what manner of man [illegible] whether he is worthy of the [illegible] only virtue and intelligence should receive. And if it so happens that if [illegible] if he has been living a life of crime and has prostituted his talents to unholy purposes, if he used such offices as [illegible] been honored with corruptly or unscrupulously he is sure to hear of it. Some will call it "floodgating" him but the disclosures will go on just the same no matter what you call them or what may be said about them. As we intimated [illegible] result of the [illegible] to political affairs and to the claims of politicians.

The latest case of this kind is that of an individual who resides, or sojourns, at the town of Cornelius in Washington county and is employed by the Holladay-Hipple-ites to run their hand organ at that place. Though we have never met this individual we had heard enough of him from various sources and in a general way before reading the Forest Grove Independent of last Saturday to convince our mind that a very few such men as he would be sufficient to satisfy all the reasonable demands of any generation but we had no reason to suppose that he was anything more than a conceited ignoramus, a political mountebank, and a petty pest. But while our estimate of his character appears to have been entirely correct as far as it went, it lacked an immense deal of taking in the whole truth if we are to credit what appears to be very creditable testimony on the subject. J E Bingham whom this man Davis has been assailing of late for his supposed authorship of a certain article in the OREGONIAN which Bingham never wrote nor saw till he saw it in these columns, replies to his attacks by giving the public through the Independent certain letters received by him from Davis old neighbors, in which Davis antecedents are gently touched up. Here is one of these multum in parvos—and one is surely enough if its statements are true.

CLINTON MISSOURI Dec 28 1873.

J E BINGHAM—Dear Sir Yours of December 8th was received some time since and according to your wish I proceeded to collect all the reliable information I could concerning the previous history of Mr D L Davis. It seems that the evidence in relation to his career from boyhood is abundant conclusive and uncontradicted. When I received your letter I went up into White Oak township, Davis old neighborhood. I went to the best men of all parties in that township—to such men as Squire J P Tiller Capt Sandy Low Vincent Lane and many others of equal veracity. Have also seen many parties here in town who concur in the statements as given by his neighbors. From the mouth of Davis younger brother as stated by him to the people here I get the early history of him (Davis).

D L Davis was born and raised in South Carolina. His father and relatives were all slaveholders and of course went for the south and in the year 1861 D L Davis enlisted in a South Carolina rebel regiment under one Capt Clark and served in the Southern cause for about nine months when D L Davis and another soldier by the name of O Neil deserted and left, I suppose in disgust. These are the statements made by D L Davis own brother who says he served three years in the Confederate army and is not ashamed of it. This is all that is known of Davis until about the close of the war when he turned up in Illinois as a Southern loyalist where he represented that he had to leave his native State on account of his loyalty. Next to Henry county Missouri where his history is well known until the day he took his departure for Oregon. When he came here he was very loyal extremely radical and seemed to think the Republican party was very much indebted to him and on many occasions expressed a willingness to accept an office at their hands. At the Republican County Convention of 1870 he pressed his claims to the honor of representing this county in the State Legislature but in this he failed whereupon he became very wroth went home again disgusted—flew clear off the handle—bolted the party—worked and voted for the Gratz Brown Frank Blair Democratic ticket, and from that day forward was a Democrat of the first water and for two years he spread himself powerfully. He was going to hang all the Northern carpet baggers in Missouri and at the Greeley and Democratic Convention of 1872 in this county he again threw to place him but it seems that the Convention did not see it in that light. Here he again became disgusted and swore that politics was a fraud, and was going to bolt again but they told him to hold on and that when Greeley beat Grant he should have the Clinton P O. Whereupon he went to work in good earnest and it is said that he worked night and day and did not quit electioneering until four days after election. And how it was that Grant beat Greeley against such odds is a mystery to Henry county people. And now it seems that he has made another flop in the political pan and is making another effort for an office. I think you had better give him a little office or he will surely flop again. The people here and upon White Oak say you are welcome to him for they have no use for him in the world and request you to keep him. But my advice would be to let him go the sooner the better for the longer you keep him the worse you will be off and as you have stated in your letter it is nothing more than right that the Republican party of your county should know the full history of the man who runs their political organ and for this reason I have had the fullest and fairest investigation of his case. For my own part I know but little about the man personally but have known him by reputation as a political weather cock and what I have stated is as it is given by the best citizens of Henry county of different politics and it is disputed by none and with this explanation you are at liberty to do with it as you see fit. Yours

J K CLINE

THE PLACE TO BEGIN REFORMATION.

The Forest Grove Independent took occasion to tender some advice to the Independent conventions last Saturday which cannot be too clearly brought home to the minds and consciences of all parties. In the following passage the axe is laid at the root of the tree:

We are largely responsible for the present condition of the country and it is time that we examine more closely into the character of aspirants for office so that this order of things may have an end. When we put men into the [illegible] whose characters [illegible] or [illegible] we may expect to have our treasury depleted, our substance wasted by [illegible] tion and the morals of the [illegible] nation debauched.

The [illegible] is right. The people have suffered themselves to be led into supporting men for office on political considerations whose private life and personal habits were intolerable and they have seen and [illegible] the follies. Other [illegible] public [illegible] for office have been [illegible] of personal [illegible] this fashion [illegible] to [illegible] and to make the name of our [illegible] demands an increasing [illegible] This is the [illegible] makes the whole system [illegible] in [illegible] lettimate of the laws of God and man, who ignores the requirements of morality and the sentiments of civilized society is considered wanting in the most essential qualification for any office and there will be a revolution bloodless but not the less radical in every department of the public service. To begin the reformation there is to begin at the beginning and once this step is taken the rest will come without effort. It is in political as well as [illegible] the [illegible] that men do not gather figs of thistles.

We regret to learn of the death of Charles F Warren Esq of Oregon City, who died at his residence on Saturday evening of small pox. He was a son of Hon Henry Warren, formerly of the Land Office and was [illegible]

At last after nearly three months delay one branch of Congress has taken a decisive step on the financial question. In Committee of the Whole House, on the 23d inst Mr Dawes from the Committee on Ways and Means reported a bill fixing the maximum circulation of legal tenders at $400,000,000. [illegible] offered an amendment fixing the amount at $356,000,000 which was rejected. [illegible] of New York offered an amendment fixing the amount at $356,000,000 [illegible] was rejected and the bill as reported was ordered engrossed. Subsequently the Committee of the Whole having been discharged Dawes and Roberts renewed their amendments the former [illegible] the Secretary [illegible] withdraw [illegible] what [illegible] in excess of $356,000,000 is now [illegible] as soon as [illegible] practicable. His amendment the withdrawal of the $44,000,000 reserve and the first step toward the return to specie payment. On Dawes amendment the vote stood—ayes 77 nays 114. The previous question was seconded and the bill passed—yeas 168 nays [illegible]. The record shows the Pacific coast members voting as follows:

On Dawes amendment limiting the total greenback circulation to $356,000,000 Clayton Luttrell [illegible] Kendall and Nesmith voted aye and Houghton no. Clayton Houghton Page and Luttrell voted in favor of Roberts amendment fixing $382,000,000 as the maximum and Kendall and Nesmith voted against it. Clayton Kendall Luttrell Nesmith and Page voted against the passage of the bill fixing $400,000,000 as the amount of greenback circulation. Houghton alone was recorded for it.

On the same day the Senate Committee on Finance reported a substitute for the pending bill a bill providing for the issue of $404,000,000 of National bank notes and the withdrawal of $88,000,000 in greenbacks.

In the Massachusetts Senatorial contest Hoar Dawes and Curtis remain the most prominent candidates although it cannot be said that any one of the three is ahead of the others since the hostility of the Dawes and Hoar factions is so bitter that their union on either of these gentlemen is quite improbable. The fifth day balloting shows a total vote of 2[illegible]—9 less a full convention. Dawes loses 4 votes Hoar 7, Curtis 6 and Adams 1 while General Banks gains 1. The Springfield Republican seems to have understood the situation pretty thoroughly. It said six days ago that Hoar's election was out of the question that Dawes chances were almost as unfavorable and that a third man—either Charles Francis Adams as an independent outsider or some person of a much lower grade in the Republican party—would be chosen as a compromise candidate. Saturday's vote certainly indicates a fulfillment of this prediction.

The Independent primaries of Oakland Douglas county last Saturday present a quite a contrast to those of the Republicans held the Saturday previous. At the Republican primaries, only four persons were present and by them one delegates were chosen. And some of those delegates will have nothing to do with the Convention and denounce the unauthorized use of their names. At the Independent primaries there was a large and enthusiastic attendance. The delegates from Oakland to the County Convention are H Davis Carrick Barnett P Fubanks L Hall Jr Joshua Cannady William Pinkston P Cochran, Gordon McCauley, Binger Herman, Abraham W McCulloch Dr R S Raymond and Warren McCauley. The meeting expressed a preference for John Burnett for Circuit Judge.

NO REPUBLICAN TICKET.

[illegible] itself and suggests much.

To the Editor of the Mountaineer: In answer to many inquiries as to whether there would be a Republican convention called in this county I would state that I have consulted many leading Republicans from different parts of the county and it appears to be the general opinion—I might say almost universal desire—that no Republican ticket should be run in this county. The people Republicans and Democrats alike and reform in the management of our public affairs—they demand honesty and good faith and less partisan acting on what we believe to be the wish of four fifths of the Republicans the committee have not called a convention.

P W CRANDALL
Chairman of Rep Co Committee.

DEMOCRATIC EXCITEMENT—On last Saturday night the Democrats tried to get up a ratification meeting. A bonfire was kindled in Main street anvils were brought out and fired which had the effect to draw a crowd. Mr Slater was called upon and addressed the crowd for a short time. He failed to get up any enthusiasm. The facts are the Democratic nominations on the State ticket fall like a wet blanket on the followers of that party. Mr Slater was very particular to call attention to the resolution in the Democratic platform opposing the purchase of the canal and locks at Oregon City by the State but he forgot to tell his audience that Mr Tilton and Mr Brown both voted in the last [illegible] to [illegible] 000 out of the people's pocket and put it in the canal and locks [illegible] The only thing about the affair that was a success was the bonfire and anvil firing. Fifty [illegible] yards and old barrels burned freely—so did the powder.—Dalles Mountaineer.

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS

Since the inauguration of the temperance movement in Portland no church has been of sufficient capacity to accommodate the vast throngs who are attracted on Sunday evenings Last evening one week ago the spacious building ... on the Taylor street church was found totally inadequate ... compelled ... to obtain ... desire to attend the temperance meeting, to be held on last evening it was wisely determined to hold the working ... meetings in two churches For this purpose the Taylor street and First Presbyterian Churches were designated

At the hour appointed we repaired to the former church and found the commodious audience room jammed to its fullest capacity with humanity Benches were brought from the vestry room, ... every seat and ... the audience ... The services consisted of singing prayer followed by a brief but very interesting discourse delivered by the Rev Dr Atkinson from the text "Wine is a mocker strong drink is raging." The speaker defined very clearly and at much length the subject of the Appetite and its uses

Dr Lindsley and Rev Mr ... made some very appropriate and forcible remarks on the subject of temperance The immense audience present last evening, and the very marked attention manifested throughout the exercises is overwhelming evidence of the deep convictions of the public on the subject which is now being so generally agitated through the Eastern Western and Pacific States

At the Presbyterian church we found a large audience assembled and an equal measure of interest and enthusiasm enlisted on this all absorbing question Rev J D Eaton delivered a brief forcible discourse and was followed by Rev A R Medbury Both these gatherings can safely be set down as profitable and a favorable indication of the public pulse on the great topic of temperance

On last Saturday evening a very interesting meeting was held at the Taylor street M E Church A large audience was present Songs prayers relating of experiences and short addresses was the order Levi ... and the well known temperance lecturer was present and delivered one of his earnest eloquent appeals in aid of the movement

TUMOR REMOVED —Dr Alfred Kinney assisted by Dr W B Cardwell, removed a large fatty tumor from the neck of a gentleman of this city a few days since The operation was performed in a very skillful manner No pain or inconvenience was experienced by the gentleman who was able to resume his avocation the following day

AGROUND —As the vessel Antioch was on the way down the river she diverged a little from the channel and got aground opposite Swan Island, on Saturday afternoon Availing however of the high tide the vessel managed to get clear early yesterday morning

ROUTE AGENTS —We learn that Mr N S Pierce at present Wells Fargo & Co's messenger on the N P R R has been appointed Route Agent between this city and Tacoma Other agents will run between the two points in connection with Mr Pierce

ACCOMMODATION BOAT FOR MONTICELLO —On Wednesday, April 1st, the steamer Rescue Capt L G Randall, will commence running regularly to Monticello via Willamette Slough

This was the opening gun of the presently political campaign and the event was duly celebrated by the Democracy with the firing of salvos the blessing ... of ... instruments ... hour appointed the ... on the stage ... was greeted with ... applause ... Mr Grover ... audience ... speech ... hour ... the speaker dwelt with ... great length on the ... of the State administration during the past ... years ...

At the time the ... office the building ... was a temporary structure poorly ventilated and wholly made ... the demands of the inmates ... few years ... drainage ... of the wooden ... the cells were in a ... condition ... in the corners of some of the cells and the atmosphere reeked with foul ... destructive to the health and well being of the convict The insecure character of the building rendered it necessary to load the prisoners down with irons, which ... so that they could not work to any advantage With but few exceptions he found the convicts weak emaciated sick and being dragged down by the heavy ... of iron they were ... about From these causes they were dispirited discouraged and could not labor with any heart Some of these convicts were suffering from ailments contracted from their wretched ... of living and it would be cruel and inhuman to continue them longer in that ... for ... were made objects of ... clemency For this reason soon after the speaker came into office ... punishment ... one of the methods employed by the guards to enforce authority and ... for infraction of the regulations was abolished very soon after the present administration came into power, and has not been allowed since Three successive Grand Juries had condemned the old penitentiary as being unfit for the abode of human beings and wholly untenable Among the first acts of the present administration was to recommend to the Legislature in the strongest terms the construction of a new penitentiary The speaker stated that the first penitentiary built in the State (in the southern portion of Portland and occupied for years as a foundry by the Oregon Iron Works) cost the Territorial Government about $82 000 This money was of course paid by the general Government The wool ... building constructed by ... Woods cost the State $... 000 The new ... penitentiary which would endure for a century or more to come that afforded a good comfortable home to all the convicts and was an institution of which any State should feel proud cost the State Government the sum of $140 000 Fifty eight thousand dollars worth of labor was performed by the convicts thus causing a direct outlay of only $101 000 Our penitentiary the speaker claimed, was now equal to any reform school in the land Punishments of a cruel or inhuman nature were entirely abolished the prisoners were well fed and clothed and treated like men and not beasts they were generally obedient respectful and as content ... as could be expected under the circumstance Ministers of all denominations visited these prisoners and religious services are held every Sunday There is a library of 200 volumes to which all the prisoners can have free access All the improvements the speaker claimed should be attributed to the present administration

Gov Grover next spoke of the new State Capitol and urged the necessity of every State having public buildings adequate to meet the public wants He did not regard the construction of the State Capitol as a piece of public extravagance On the contrary he thought it was a much needed work One hundred thousand dollars was ... which to commence this great work It had been asserted frequently by the enemies of the present administration, that the new building would cost $3 000,000 Such, the speaker claimed, was a most extravagant estimate Only the sum of $17 000 has yet been drawn from the treasury of the $100 000 appropriated for that purpose This sum covers the brick and wood work ... has progressed ... Five thousand dollars more of the appropriation has thus far been expended for the necessary ... work making in all the sum of $82 000 How far towards completion the building had progressed all were conversant Already one and a half million brick have been laid The speaker was of the opinion that by the time the original appropriation was exhausted all the masonry work would be completed If then subsequent Legislatures should deem the work extravagant and an advance of the immediate wants of the State the building could be covered and the walls ... stand until another appropriation was ... But the State needed such a building and he felt assured that the work would go forward to an early completion All the bricks ... being burned by the convicts which will be a great saving to the State

The speaker next spoke of taxation which many ... this question of taxation ... the present ... nearly two ... taxes ... and since ... taxation has not been ... The speaker next alluded to ... veto power He had vetoed the $300 000 subsidy bill because it conflicted with the State Constitution He had signed the bill increasing the salaries of Clerks and Sheriffs because it conflicted with ... existing law and was ... by the Legislature—the acknowledged law making power of the State That ... in the passage of the bill was opposed ... will of the people and as ... public ... against its ... with ... hold ... and signature on the ... difference of opinion ... declined ... bill ... the signatures of the tax payers ... land

OUR SALEM LETTER

EDUCATIONAL—SOCIAL—POLITICAL

SALEM Oregon, March 28 1874

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

This week has been one of considerable interest caused by the attendance of numbers of persons from the country On Thursday and Friday the

COUNTY TEACHERS INSTITUTE

Was held which was well attended and an interesting term was held at which time I have been informed about thirty teachers were examined and a thorough test of the question system was had but whether it was found to be all anticipated or not I have not been informed Yesterday evening (Friday) the lady members of

COLFAX REBEKAH DEGREE LODGE NO 1

Gave a sociable in Reed's Opera House which considering the inclemency of the weather was well attended and all enjoyed the vocal and instrumental music tableau and supper while the financial success was gratifying as it is to be applied to purchase books for the Odd Fellows Library which is rapidly augmenting its number of books and other good reading matter and its usefulness

WHO WAS RIGHT?

In my last I mentioned that Mr Slater made excuses for Mr La Dow the Democratic nominee for Congress which Mr S has denied in your paper When I entered the room that gentleman had been speaking a few minutes I took a seat alongside two very reliable gentlemen, who told me that the excuse that I mentioned had just been made and to-day they have told me that I was correct in what I had said I gave it for what it was worth as I became acquainted with Mr Slater when he lived in Corvallis and had no desire to misstate anything that he said but it is a small matter and will let it go

Yesterday, the delegates began to arrive to attend the

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

Which met this morning at 10 o'clock in Reed's Opera House and was called to order by T B Rickey Chairman of County Committee On motion J C Peebles was chosen Chairman, A A Gilbert, Secretary, and Louis Bleakney Assistant Secretary A Committee on Order of Business consisting of T B Rickey Salem J G Wright, East Salem W L Wade, North Salem E K Miller South Salem Henry Ankeny Jefferson N O Parker, Marion, Dr S D McCalley Sublimity H D Mount, Silverton Wm Greenwood, Howell Prairie; Florence P Jones La Bish Willis Dunnigan Abiqua L H Poujade Gervais Jas Engle, Woodburn John Giesy Aurora, G Cone, Jr Butteville J J Murphy (proxy for J B P Piette) Champoeg S Carr, Fairfield Sylvanus Condit Lincoln

On motion the following Committee on Permanent Organization was appointed I L McKinney W P Lord H Dayton Henry States and Wm Sappingfield

On motion the following Committee on Resolutions was appointed Geo Williams A A McCully Wm Powell, W Cranston and Wm Darst

The Committee on Credentials consisting of J N Matheny E L Hibbard and L N Thomas, who retired to make up their report and kept the Convention waiting over an hour which was occupied very industriously by the numerous candidates in button holing the different delegates, finishing up the work of the grand pow-wow held in the old Court House last evening, caused by the movements of the Dolly Varden soreheads, as they were pleased to call men who did not choose to bow to the mandates of the railroad ring and the moral leper Hipplemitchell But finally the committee reported and the Convention adjourned until 1 o'clock

On the re-assembling of the Convention the Committee on Permanent Organization recommended the same officers that had been elected at the morning session, and invited all representatives of the press to a seat on the rostrum

The Committee on Order of Business submitted the usual report.

The Committee on Resolutions submitted the following report, which was adopted instanter after the reading of the same:

[illegible] ent administration

Resolved That we are in favor of economy and retrenchment and a just and fair compensation for officials in all offices.

Resolved, That we are not in favor of any man holding office who is not known to be capable economical and strictly temperate in his habit.

Resolved That we are opposed to the act known as the Litigant Act and demand its immediate repeal also that we are opposed to the purchase by the State of the canal and locks at Oregon City

Resolved, That while we favor a general system of education in our State and hail the act of the late Legislative Assembly as in the right direction yet we believe that the feature of the law which compels a uniformity of school books for the entire State ought to be repealed and that question left to the school districts subject to recommendation of the County Superintendents. (Signed)

GEO WILLIAMS,
WARREN CRANSTON,
W H POWELL
WM DARST
A A MCCULLEY

The next order of business being the election of delegates to the State Republican Convention the following were elected J M Johns Warren Cranston H G Morris, John Hofer John Giesy, S Condit, A Stevens J W Greenwood W A Cusick W P Lord W F Boothby E K Miller J G Wright and Henry Ankeny

When the nomination for State Senators was in order as announced by the Chairman about a dozen men sprang to their feet and nominated the following gentlemen Joseph Engle J H Moores, Green B Cornelius, Dr S D McCally, C. A Reed, Henry Ankeny, Dr J A Richardson On the first ballot Joseph Engle and Dr J A Richardson were nominated when on motion of T B Rickey, Henry Ankeny, who was the next highest was elected by acclamation under suspension of the rules

Nomination of Representatives being next in order, the following were named C H Childers, William Darst John Minto David Simpson J H Baughman, John Blakely, S D Northcutt, Warren Cranston and A N Gilbert,

Which resulted in the selection of the following on the first ballot C H Childers William Darst, John Minto, David Simpson Warren Cranston and A N Gilbert

For County Judge, J C Peebles (William Case, C N Terry, and H A Johnson Second ballot resulted in the nomination of J C Peebles thus returning to their first love in days gone by

The interest in the proceedings of the Convention now become fully awakened as the struggle was known to be on the two best paying offices in the county namely Sheriff and Clerk Numerous were the candidates and all marshaled their forces for the coming struggle For Clerk the following named aspirants were named A B Cooper, George Eades Howard Morris, J M Johns E L McKinney G H Lafollette and A A Bonney On the second ballot Mr Howard Morris was selected which was gratifying to the young aspirant but a bitter pill to several of the defeated candidates

The excitement now grew intense as the several candidates for Sheriff were named as follows Thos C Shaw L S Scott C M Cartwright, J N. Matheny Joseph A Baker J C Hayes and John B Dimick The first ballot developed the strength of the county and city delegates, and the tacit understanding that the city should have one of the two offices but now a lingering suspicion seemed to gain ground that the country was going to take all the scalps, if possible The second ballot confirmed the suspicion and the anxiety was painful especially to those immediately interested The result demonstrated the fact that the struggle would be between Baker and Shaw with the chances in favor of the country candidate Shaw The third ballot was a Waterloo defeat for the city Baker's friends stood manfully for him but had to submit when the vote was declared as follows Shaw 62 Baker 38 Matheny 5 Cartwright 6 blank 2 Total 113

There being but one candidate for County Treasurer—J T Boynton he was nominated by acclamation

There were several candidates for County Commissioners and after one ballot the two highest John Giesy and J A Huffman were elected by acclamation

E L Hibbard was nominated for Assessor H P Crooks for School Superintendent, and Alonzo Gesner for Surveyor, after which it became so late that I left while the County Committee was being elected, although a great many were leaving

While on the street we heard cheering, which it was supposed was intended as a happy send off for the ticket and must have been consoling to the defeated candidates, who were as sore as if every vote against them had been a stroke of a club on their heads One strange thing of the nominations is that Hon John Minto who was nominated for Representative was at that very hour elected a delegate to a premature meeting of the Independents [illegible] Salem when [illegible] he was at the time So the parked have now [illegible] taken up the Independent after all Will [illegible] Saturday will show mother [illegible] of the triangle of the [illegible]
